Current situation (2004)
No remains were in evidence when the survey team visited the area. An unnamed local person identified the site of the monastery.

-----------------------------

Oral Histories
Devsen Bulgiin Khuree was a relatively large monastery in the area. There were more than 100 monks living permanently. In the end of the 1930’s the buildings were destroyed.

Source(s): Unamed local person